KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

SEPTEMBER 8

Kurt Bumby is a Senior Manager with the Center for Effective Public Policy. In this capacity, Dr. Bumby serves as a technical assistance provider to jurisdictions participating in sex offender management, offender transition and reentry, and court-based initiatives, and has contributed to a number of the Center's written documents.

Prior to joining the Center, Dr. Bumby served as the Director of Juvenile Services and Sex Offender Services for a private forensic behavioral health corporation in Columbia, Missouri, where he was the Assistant Director of Correctional Mental Health Services. Dr. Bumby was formerly the Clinical Director and Assistant Deputy Director of the Missouri Division of Youth Services. He is also a Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Medical Psychology, at the University of Missouri Columbia School of Medicine.

Dr. Bumby received his doctoral degree from the Law/Psychology and Clinical Psychology Training Program specialty track at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. Specializing in juvenile justice and the assessment and treatment of sex offenders, Dr. Bumby has worked with adult and juvenile offenders in both state and federal correctional, mental health, and juvenile justice settings. Dr. Bumby has published extensively on sex offenders and other forensic topics such as youth violence, child maltreatment, alternative sentencing, judicial education, and prison rape in a variety of professional journals and books.

SEPTEMBER 9

Dr. Anna Salter received her Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology and Public Practice from Harvard University and obtained a Masters Degree in Child Study from Tufts. She was a Teaching Fellow at both Universities. Dr. Salter has lived in Madison Wisconsin since 1996 and consults half time to the Wisconsin Department of Corrections. In addition, she lectures and consults on sex offenders and victims throughout the United States and abroad. She has keynoted conferences on sexual abuse in Australia, New Zealand, Scotland and England. In all, she has conducted trainings in 45 states and 8 countries. Dr. Salter also evaluates sex offenders for civil commitment proceedings and other purposes. She testifies as an expert witness in sexual abuse civil and criminal cases.

Before moving to Madison, Dr. Salter was on the faculty of Dartmouth Medical School in Lebanon, New Hampshire in the Departments of Psychiatry and Maternal and Child Health. While there, she was Director of Psycho-social Training for the Pediatric Residency Program, Director of Child Psychiatry Consultation to the Pediatric Ward, Co-Director of the Parenting Clinic, Assistant Director of the Children-at-Risk Program and Director of the Parents in Distress Program. She also won the Saul Blatman Teaching Award in the Department of Pediatrics and Maternal and Child Health.

SEPTEMBER 10

Dr. Sharon Cooper, MD, FAAP, is the CEO of Developmental and Forensic Pediatrics, PA, a consulting firm that provides medical care, training, and expert witness experience in child maltreatment cases. She works regularly with numerous national and international investigative agencies on Internet crimes against children cases. She holds faculty positions at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill School of Medicine at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, and at the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences in Bethesda, Maryland. She is also an instructor at the Army Medical Education Department Center and School at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, where she provides multidisciplinary training in all forms of child maltreatment to health care providers, law enforcement, attorneys, judges, therapists, chaplains, and social workers.

Dr. Cooper spent 21 years in the Armed Forces, retiring as a colonel, and has for the past several years worked in both the civilian and military arenas in child abuse and developmental pediatrics. Dr. Cooper has lectured both nationally and internationally in over 300 conferences for the U.S. Department of Justice, the American Academy of Pediatrics, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and Interpol. She has published chapters in texts, and is the lead author of the first comprehensive text on the medical, legal, and social science aspects of child sexual exploitation and Internet crimes against children. Dr. Cooper also serves as an instructor for both the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children and the International Centre for Missing & Exploited Children.
